there has been some recent work using allopurinol as an alternative treatment for an exotic infection called "leishmaniasis" and in the treatment of "american trypanosomiasis" as well melt and pour soaps allow you to have the fun of soap making without the mess of making them from scratch